

Brother Jesse,

I hope my letter reaches you well, in peace and in good health. I am an older minister like you but still active and has a local. I will not give details on my whereabouts because as you know, older ministers like us are tightly watched since your letter reached many brethren all over the world. "Loyalty checks" are now more frequently done and we are threatened to be accused of rebellion against the administration and God, if questions arise regarding any of the procedures or activities launched by the Sanggunian and Bro. Eduardo. In all my life in the ministry, I have not witnessed this kind of self-exaltation especially during Bro. Erdy and Bro. Felix, only now during the time of Bro. Eduardo.

I too received your letter. Eventually, I found out that many of us in our district received it including many brethren who are close to me. At first, no one said a word to each other since we do not know who to trust and will not report this to the administration. When I got your letter, I immediately wrapped it in a  and placed it in a  and hid it in the  of the pastoral to ensure that no one sees it in case a surprise inspection is conducted like they did before. At midnight, I took it with me inside the chapel where I went to the pulpit and prayed for guidance in what I was about to do. While reading your letter, I could not stop my tears from flowing from beginning to end. It was as if my chest was severely beaten from the pain I felt with your every word. I felt the sincere sentiments of an exceptional servant of God in you, and I can truly say that your ministry is more truthful than anyone of us. I feel ashamed that I don't have your courage expected of me by our God so that we may not be likened to dogs who cannot bark and is therefore, useless. You did not hold back in speaking up to EVM with all truthfulness, brought about by a higher level of love and faith to gently remind him of his errors. You did not fear to show the crooked justifications of Bro. Eduardo regarding what he did to his parents, especially to his mother and his younger brothers and sister. I feel your intense aim to correct his wrong way of thinking and remove the evil spirit in his heart, and the hate he has against his siblings. If only love and kindness prevailed in the heart of the current Administrator of the Church, this scandal and shame would have not happened to the church all over the world.

I saw how you strived to remain a true soldier of God to fulfill our sworn duty to care for the brethren and their faith so they can continue until God removes EVM and all corrupt and disobedient Ministers under his leadership. But from what I've seen happening in the church, and how your clan has been mistreated, God shows us all the signs that He has allowed this administration to fall into making errors. They have been blinded by fame and riches, their involvement in scandal, venturing into business, pawning and owning money from the banks just to add a few more. My vow prayers have been answered and your letter fortified my decision. Although I have known these anomalies for a while and EVM's separation from the doctrines and procedures, I remained silent. My faith was that God will reveal all things and He will remove Bro. Eduardo and punish him and those ministers like him and God will replace them with an Administration who possesses the heart and spirit of the former leaders of the nation of God. This is why although I remain in my duty, I no longer follow the useless instructions of the Sanggunian. I know they only want to exalt Bro. Eduardo for his own glory. In this way, it is revealed that EVM is still child-like or immature. He is easily swayed by opinions and inventions of those around him including this "One with EVM" and "Make EVM smile" mantra to cover up for his insecurities. This was not allowed in the time of our former dynamic leaders. The focus has been taken away from God and from our Lord Jesus and given to the Executive Minister. Many times, when Bro. Erdy was alive, out of love, the brethren tried to give him accolades but he refused to accept them to prevent anyone from honoring him more than our Father and our Lord Jesus. Bro. Erdy and the last Messenger in these last days were dynamic and powerful, but they were humble and filled with love and kindness and it was evident that they were guided by the Holy Spirit.

I pray to God that He May give me the chance to prove my worth, as His servant, with the right qualities to shepherd His fold. May He give me the courage to stand up for His righteousness and to no longer be an instrument of a disobedient Administration, a leadership swallowed by greed, jealousy and hate in the person of Bro. Eduardo. This is to test His nation if we will entrust our faith and Godly fear unto Him who is all powerful or unto men who use power and authority to oppress the rights and freedom of those who stand for the truth and refuse to follow his selfish ambitions.

I truly miss the days of Bro. Erdy, even though he was strict because he disciplined accordingly, and with love, just like a father to a son. And although the church was in the pinnacle of success worldwide, he did not give in to the fame and glory, he lived humbly, he refused any government positions and worldly recognitions may it be Guinness World records which do not give praise to God but only to those who are thirsty for attention and worldly reward.

Your letter to the brethren and to your co-ministers truly shook this Administration. The Sanggunian gave strict instructions to all the brethren not to read your letter and emails but to give it to their respective locale and district leaders with a written statement of loyalty to Bro. Eduardo Manalo. This is the topic of the meetings with the officers and brethren nowadays. Those who were proven to have read it must also make a video stating their loyalty to EVM. We were also instructed to conduct visitations and warn the brethren of the danger of reading these kinds of letter, defaming the administration and to treat this letter like poison or "anthrax" done by terrorists, and those who read this will suffer the same misfortune. By this, it is clearly seen how affected this administration is, by the truth regarding what is happening to the church. In all of church history, it is only now when brethren are told not to read something as if they do not have the intelligence to discern truth from lies and right from wrong. What they do not understand is that the more they hide things from the brethren, the more they will ask questions and soon, their eyes will be opened to the truth that cannot be hidden for all time.

I would like to thank you Bro. Jesse because God used you as His instrument. You gave inspiration and guidance to many brethren and to ministers like me all over the world so that we too, may fully stand by the side of God and his righteousness. We, ministers and brethren, have talked and we now know what to do should we be summoned by the District Office or by the Sanggunian. We will no longer be instruments of evil and wrong doings and we will obey God first before man. God will fulfill His promise not to forsake us and He will grant us our every need. I hope that when I face our God, I can hold my head up high and say that I have finished the race and I fought the good fight. I pray that many more will be awoken to the truth and will choose God now instead of pretending to still be One with EVM.

Our hope is that in the soonest possible time, we will be called in so that we may say what we truly feel inside. WE DO NOT HATE ANYONE FROM THE CLAN OF THE MESSENGER. THAT INCLUDES THE INSOLENT SON OF BRO. ERDY, BRO. EDUARDO. May I be with you in the same stand, in the soonest possible time. May God bless all those whom God use for His holy work in cleansing the flock to be worthy of salvation.

May our God bless us all.

Your brother in the Ministry,

Bro. R A**
